

Policy Officer Aviation and Shipping

Policy Officer Low Carbon Fuels

T&E, Europe's principal environmental organisation on transport issues, is currently seeking two highly motivated, dynamic and results-driven policy officers to lead T&E's work on international transport (aviation and shipping) and low carbon fuels. These positions require strategic thinking, political-savvy, highly-developed networking, advocacy and communications skills combined with the ability to understand complex economic, scientific and political issues.

We offer the chance to help shape policies with huge implications for people and the environment across the globe as well as a competitive salary and a package of benefits.

Candidates should be able to show that they have the ability to:

- develop and run multi-year campaigns from scratch and with limited supervision
- research complex policy issues and commission studies and reports
- advocate T&E's position to policy makers, the media, and our international network
- build up a network of NGO, academic, industry and government contacts
- work across two or more policy areas, giving support to colleagues wherever necessary

And should meet the following criteria:

- Highly motivated, with a minimum of three years relevant professional experience preferably in transport or environmental policy or other EU policy work.
- Ability to quickly synthesise technical, economic, industrial and political issues;
- Confidence to engage and influence policymakers, industry representatives and other stakeholders at the highest level;
- Excellent communication and presentation skills;
- Fluent written and spoken English; Must speak at least one other EU language fluently;
- Excellent interpersonal and team-working skills, flexibility, and reliability;
- Willingness to travel;

These are full-time positions based in Brussels, subject to a six-month trial period.

To apply, please send a letter of motivation and CV to vacancy@transportenvironment.org. The letter of motivation should clearly demonstrate why you want the job and how your skills and experience are relevant to the job requirements detailed above.

Closing date for applications: Monday 5 May 2008 – 17:00 CET

Expected start date: as soon as possible
