Road to efficiency

How fuel economy standards for cars and trucks can help governments meet their 2030 climate targets

Date: 23 March - Venue: Brussels (Square Brussels)

9.30-9.40 – Welcome by William Todts, Director Freight & Climate

9.45-10.00 – Keynote speech by Anita van den Ende (DG) Dutch presidency

Morning session - Trucks

10.00-10.25 – The users’ perspective:
   ● Philippe de Carne, Geodis
   ● Andreas Manke, Spedition Bartkowiak

10.25-10.45 – Rachel Muncrief, ICCT

--- 10.45-11.15 – coffee break ---

11.15-11.35 – The view from across the pond - Margo Oge, ex US EPA

11.40-12.45 – Panel debate and discussion:
   ● Niklas Gustafsson - Volvo trucks
   ● Jos Dings - Transport & Environment
   ● Achim Juechter - DHL
   ● Alex Paquot - European Commission
   ● Margo Oge - ex US EPA

---12:45-14h00 – lunch---
Afternoon session - Cars

14.00-14.05 – Introduction by Christian Hetzner, Automotive News Europe

14.05-14.25 – Car efficiency, impacts on jobs and growth - Pete Harrison, European Climate Foundation

14.45-15.05 – The value of fuel efficient cars to second hand owners - Kris Vanherle, TM Leuven Mobility and Environment tbc

15.05-15.25 – Real world emissions in 2020 and beyond, impacts of WLTP and emerging technologies - Alex Stewart, Element Energy

--- 15.25-15.50 – coffee break ---

15.50-16.10 – Measuring CO2 emissions on the road - Laurent Declerk, Peugeot Citroen

16.10-16.50 – Panel debate and discussion on next steps in car CO2 regulation:
  ● Greg Archer - Transport & Environment
  ● Alex Paquot - DG Climate Action
  ● Laurianne Krid - FIA
  ● Margo Oge - Former US EPA
  ● Bob Moran - UK Department for Transport
  ● Industry Representative - Tbc

16.50-17.00 – Wrap up - Christian Hetzner, Automotive News Europe

17.00-17.30 – Cocktail